

NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA

WYOMING COUNTY.

Court Matters—Other News of the Susquehanna Valley.

Special to The Scranton Tribune. Tunkhannock, March 21.—Word has been received here from Paymaster Z. Wells Reynolds, of the navy, that he and R. J. Little, his clerk, were at San Diego, Cal., awaiting orders from the navy department, and that they expected to come east in about two weeks.

Ex-Sheriff H. P. Carter, now a resident of Wilkes-Barre, was in town yesterday. W. A. Kittredge, manager of the Consumers' store, is engaged in moving his goods from his present location on Tioga street. He will open at the latter place about April 1. Herrick Brothers will move their stock from the building they now occupy to the store vacated by the Consumers' company and their old store room will undergo extensive repairs before being occupied by H. H. Kowalski. Work on the new building to be occupied by Herrick Brothers has been delayed, owing to the cold weather, and they will occupy the old Consumers' store building until their building is completed. John B. Jennings, of Mehoopany, was in Tunkhannock Tuesday. Hon. William R. Reynolds addresses the Men's United club at the Presbyterian church this evening, taking for his subject the pension department at Washington. Mr. Reynolds spent four years in the department as chief of one of the divisions and it should make an interesting talk.

Register W. U. Shaw gives notice of the following accounts which have been filed in his office and will come up for confirmation at April term of court: Final account of Samuel H. Gregory, executor of the estate of Abi M. Hastings, late of Tunkhannock township. Final account of C. P. Frear and E. C. Frear, executors of the estate of Charles Frear, late of Overfield township. Final account of James A. Webb and Anna Leppo, executors of the estate of Hannah M. Bettisheim, late of Newton township. Final account of Henry Tague, administrator of the estate of John Tague, late of Lemon township. Final account of Jabez Lee, administrator of the estate of Mary Lee, late of Falls township. Final account of Peter B. Walter, executor of the estate of Mary Wheeler, late of Factoryville borough. Final account of John G. Adams, executor of the estate of Richard Bolton, late of Tunkhannock township. First partial account of A. M. DeWitt, administrator of the estate of F. W. DeWitt, late of Tunkhannock borough. Final account of C. H. Smith, administrator of the estate of Gilbert Travis, late of Lemon township. First partial account of Jabez Lee, administrator of the estate of John Lee, late of Falls township. First and final account of John H. Fellows, guardian of Pauline Reynolds, a minor child of S. C. Reynolds, late of Factoryville borough. First and final account of John H. Fellows, guardian of Leon Reynolds, minor child of S. C. Reynolds, late of Factoryville borough.

HONESDALE.

Special to The Scranton Tribune. Honesdale, March 21.—Miss Alice Atkinson spent the past week in New York city.

Miss Harriet Stanton has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Crowell, at Newark, N. J. Mrs. J. A. Spruks has been spending a few days in New York city on business.

Miss Blanche Whitney is the guest of friends in Brooklyn, N. Y. The Musical History club meeting this (Thursday) evening will be in charge of Mrs. L. B. Richmyer, with a miscellaneous programme.

Mr. Joseph Hillard, who resides about two miles from Honesdale, in the direction of Beech lake, has lost four children, within a short time, from diphtheria.

The New York Milk exchange has reduced the price of milk from three to two and three-quarter cents per quart, which affects the farmers of Wayne county.

The Erie Railroad company will run an excursion from Honesdale to Washington, D. C., March 29, good to return until April 4. Fare, $10. Manager Silverstone has secured the "Monte Carlo Girls" for a return date.

Special to The Scranton Tribune. Factoryville, March 21.—Edward Calkins, of Waverly, was a business visitor here Tuesday.

The choir of the Methodist Episcopal church, of this place, are rehearsing a service for Easter music.

Part of the household goods of the Rev. G. R. Smith, of Franklinville, N. Y., have arrived here, and have been placed in the Baptist parsonage. Mr. Smith's preaching has introductory sermon in the Baptist church here on the morning of April 1, and in the evening he will conduct the union services at the Methodist Episcopal church.

A quiet and very pretty double wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Rogers, of the township, Tuesday evening, March 20, when Miss Gertrude Lindsay was united in marriage to Mr. Clarence C. Sterling, both of Brookline, Pa., and Mrs. George Oakley, of Dinwiddie, Pa., to Mr. Jessie Whitman, of Brookline, Pa., by the Rev. W. M. Hiller, of this place, at 8 o'clock. Only a few of the relatives were present. After the wedding ceremonies a beautiful wedding supper was served. Mr. Sterling formerly resided here, where she has many friends. Both couple will reside at Brookline, Pa.

Rev. Fred Hiller, who has been spending a few days at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage, will return to his home in Dryden, N. Y., today.

NICHOLSON.

Special to The Scranton Tribune. Nicholson, March 21.—Miss Grace Warner is spending a few days in Dunmore, with her aunt, Mrs. James Flynn, who is sick.

Hereafter orders for the Lackawanna will be received at the store of W. C. Lord, Basket goods Wednesday morning, returning Friday night. Mrs. Merrit Oakley makes another trip to New York city today.

Mr. Claud Roberts, of Hopbonton, is visiting in the general merchandise store of Messrs. Shields & Bell. The Epworth League social given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Colvin last evening, which was well attended by the young people, was a very enjoyable affair.

Mrs. M. L. McMillan is quite sick at present. Mr. Rowland Shields and family expect to move into Mr. Chandler E. Cole's house in Walnut park.

Mr. Leonard Knapp and family expect to occupy the rooms that Mr. Shields vacates. Mrs. James Masters, and Mrs. Zeida Sharp, of Scranton, are spending a few days with Mrs. Master's sister, Mrs. Charles Brown.

Mr. George Carr, of Scranton, is in town today, teaching his class of music. The class is increasing in numbers and improving in talent. Mr. Henry Myers and family, who have resided here for a great many years, expect to move to Scranton this week.

Mr. Samuel Strunk's oldest son is very sick with whooping cough and bronchitis. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Parker spent yesterday in Haledale with Mr. Parker's aunt, Mrs. Margaret Tuttle.

MONTROSE.

Special to The Scranton Tribune. Montrorse, March 21.—Mrs. Frank Straus was the guest of Binghamton friends last week.

Miss Susie Warner, who has been attending school at West Chester, is spending a short vacation with her parents here.

Mrs. Searle McCullom has returned from a visit to Syracuse. Miss Margaret Ballard, of Wilkes-Barre, is visiting her grandparents here.

Mrs. D. W. Searle left on Monday for a visit to friends at Philadelphia. Mrs. E. R. Gardner and Miss Levis Hill, who have been spending the past two months in the south, have returned home.

R. S. Searle, E. P. Munger, M. S. Allen and O. A. Gilbert were at La Plume Tuesday and inspected the milk condensery at that place.

Miss Nellie Keenan returns on Tuesday from a short visit among Susquehanna friends and relatives. A song recital will be held at the home of Mrs. Harry Beach on next Friday evening by the members of Mrs. White's singing class.

Miss Louise Weaver will arrive on Thursday from Bucknell college and will spend a short vacation here, the guest of her parents.

Stetson's Uncle Tom's Cabin company is billed to appear at the Village hall on Monday, March 26.

The Ladies' Sewing society of St. Paul's church were entertained at the home of Mrs. Charles H. Alney Tuesday afternoon.

FACTORYVILLE.

Special to The Scranton Tribune. Factoryville, March 21.—Edward Calkins, of Waverly, was a business visitor here Tuesday.

The choir of the Methodist Episcopal church, of this place, are rehearsing a service for Easter music.

Part of the household goods of the Rev. G. R. Smith, of Franklinville, N. Y., have arrived here, and have been placed in the Baptist parsonage. Mr. Smith's preaching has introductory sermon in the Baptist church here on the morning of April 1, and in the evening he will conduct the union services at the Methodist Episcopal church.

Both couple will reside at Brookline, Pa.

Rev. Fred Hiller, who has been spending a few days at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage, will return to his home in Dryden, N. Y., today.

THOMPSON.

Special to The Scranton Tribune. Thompson, March 21.—L. Clark and wife, of Montdale, spent several days with F. W. Lewis and wife, returning to their home Monday.

C. F. Waterman was granted an increase in his pension last week from $8 to $12 per month and it is some two years since he is confined to the house with lung trouble, with little prospect of recovering. R. V. Whitney, also has been granted an increase. Miss Mary Reull, one of the teachers in the Peckville schools, was a welcome visitor over the Sabbath at F. M. Lewis'. A move is on foot by the trustees of the Methodist Episcopal church to repair, quite extensively, the church edifice, which will be aided by every member of the church, as it doubtless will be. W. V. Gelatt moves his family to Lake View this week, where he has rented a farm. Mrs. Ada Turrell is doing business in Susquehanna today. A. S. Bingham, of Jackson, was in town yesterday. Charles Merryhew is visiting in Lewis county, N. Y., this week. The property of the late Orlas Lewis, adjoining the Baptist church, will be sold at public sale tomorrow. The monthly meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance union will be held in the Baptist church next Sabbath evening. Rev. Brewster will speak. E. E. Gelatt is in Binghamton today on business. A. C. Bliss, of Factoryville, has rented the store of N. S. Foster and Mr. Foster is moving into B. F. Larrabee's house across the way. Ellis Stimpson is working at Uniondale station for a few weeks.

SUSQUEHANNA.

Special to The Scranton Tribune. Susquehanna, March 21.—After an illness of but a few days of pneumonia, Owen McKernan, one of the oldest residents of Susquehanna, died at his home on West Church street on Tuesday afternoon, aged 74 years. He is survived by his son, George McKernan, of Chicago. His funeral will take place from St. John's Catholic church on Thursday morning, when a requiem high mass will be celebrated. The interment will take place in Laurel Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Charles Florence and Miss Blanche Dodge, of Buffalo, are in town, called here by the funeral of their sister, the late Mrs. Charles Johnson, of Buffalo.

Charles A. De Lancy, a prominent and popular merchant of Jackson, has filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy. An entertainment will be held in Hogan Opera house, April 25, under the auspices and for the benefit of the choir of the Methodist Episcopal church. An excellent programme is being arranged. Moody Relief corps, No. 12, Grand Army of the Republic, last evening held a memorial service in honor of the late Mrs. Annie Williams. It was a very interesting occasion.

Mrs. Clark Evans is ill at her home on West Main street. Druggist A. P. French is on the sick roll. Rev. Charles W. Root is recovering from a severe attack of grippe. The Locust Hill Epworth league will hold a social at the residence of Elias Elzkin on Thursday evening.

Mrs. J. A. Smith, of the Oakland Side, is recovering from a severe and protracted illness. The quarterly conference of the Susquehanna Methodist church has elected E. J. Matthews as delegate to the lay electoral conference to be held in Owego in April. Matthew Anderson and family are removing from Lestershire, N. Y., to Oakland borough.

Miss Anna Anderson, of the Oakland Side, is ill. There are snow drifts in Montrorse for the first time this winter. The Montrorse Young Men's Christian association will celebrate its fourth anniversary on Sunday next. The Wyoming conference will be asked to return Rev. H. D. Benedict, pastor of the Montrorse Methodist church, for another year.

On Sunday night at Great Bend a sand bank and springs fell from a cave which fell and cast-bound night express No. 12 was stopped by the tower operators and the wrecking gang from Susquehanna removed the obstacle. If train No. 12 had struck it a terrible accident would have resulted. The same frog was obstructed when day express train was wrecked Jan. 21, 1899, when Fireman Telly was killed and Engineer Dana Welch was injured.

The rage for additional wards seems to have struck some of the smaller boroughs of Susquehanna county. During the past conference, over fifty-five persons have joined the Forest City Methodist church and the debt upon the parsonage has been nearly raised.

A. G. Doherty, manager of Hogan new house, is opening a store in the Doherty block, Main street. Timothy J. Houllhan, a Susquehanna boy, recently chief clerk of the Tioga division of the Erie, has been appointed coal agent for the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad company in Elmira.

The choir of St. Agnes' Catholic church, in Forest City, is rehearsing Leonard's mass in E flat for Easter.

Delaware and Hudson Station Agent E. L. Barrett, of Windsor, was in town Wednesday. Tonsorial Artist Thomas Telly has removed his household effects from Susquehanna to Honesdale, where he is conducting the Allen House shop.

Mrs. John Morgan, of Carbondale, is visiting her parents in Susquehanna, while her husband, a carbonate merchant, is in Colorado for his health. Rev. E. R. Allen, pastor of the Baptist church, expects to remove to Worcester, New York, about April 15.

The deadlock in the Susquehanna common council over the election of a borough treasurer is, as yet, unbroken. Mrs. Katherine Perrine is still confined to her home on the Oakland Side by a fall received some months ago.

Miss Julia Curtis, of Jersey City, is the guest of Susquehanna friends. The British-Bosch unpleasantness and the deadlock in the Susquehanna common council are diverting the minds of our people from their Lenten duties.

FOREST CITY.

Special to The Scranton Tribune. Forest City, March 21.—Mrs. Julia Whitman, of Pleasant Mount, Wayne county, is the guest of relatives in town.

Mr. John J. Shelly and Cora R. Collins were united in marriage at the St. Agnes Catholic church, by Rev. Father Welch, at 3 o'clock. Miss

JONAS LONG'S SONS. The "Leader" Stock Was Practically New. WE HAVE as yet to find anything in the stock bearing the ear-marks of age. It is a notable collection of worthiness. The more you delve into it, the better you'll like it. Seeing is believing. You'll not be asked or urged to buy—but you WILL buy, for many present and future needs will suggest themselves as you wander around here.

Price Is the Magnet That Attracts. Common occurrences are shattered by extraordinary occasions like this one. In most instances you buy goods for half cost and less. A visit here is well worth the effort.

Jonas Long's Sons

Rose Middleton was bridesmaid and William Bell acted as best man. The young couple will reside in Forest City. T. C. Manzer was in South Gibson the first of the week. The many friends of James T. Jennings will very much regret that he is so soon to leave Forest City. Mr. Jennings is the chief electrician for the Hillside Coal and Iron company, and one of Forest City's most respected and popular young men. He will resign his position here the first of the month to accept a similar but more lucrative one with the Davis Coal company at Thomas, West Virginia. Mr. Jennings has been located near Pittsburg and will have charge of the electrical department of several public to come in and buy stocks when prices are at an invitingly low level. They want about the size in full progress, and apparently the present movement has been inaugurated with a view of affording an object lesson in increasing values. Total sales today, 776,709 shares.
